JOB POSTING

Title: Accountant: Senior

Status: Full-Time

Description Summary:

Springfield Inc. is accepting applications for the position of Accountant. This position is considered a senior position responsible for general research, finance and reporting, audit function, and the development of practicable policies and procedures.

- Assists the Controller as required to ensure daily standard operating procedures and completion of special projects.
- Prepares and analyzes monthly financial management report to discern discrepancies.
- Evaluates product and manufacturing costs: prepares/analyzes reports related to inventory quantities and values.
- Coordinates year-end audit, assists with G/L accounting, and the preparation of financials and excise tax filings.
- Contributes to the development and implementation of system upgrades, new software, and the updates to accounting practices and procedures.

Successful applicants will possess technical expertise to develop reporting functions to support analytic-centric policies and practices, elevating the accounting departments form and function to support rapid growth and the ability to meet market needs.

Requirements:

Qualified applicants will possess exceptional organizational, accuracy, and communication skills. The ability to form cooperative work relationships is expected. Bachelor's degree (accounting) and relevant work history (manufacturing) is required. CPA is preferred. High level of proficiency in the operation of Microsoft programs (Excel) is essential. Ability to conduct independent research is necessary to remain cognizant of changing laws and tax regulations. This position is trusted to handle and protect company-private information: discretion, integrity, and ethics nonnegotiable.

Compensation:

Springfield offers a competitive compensation and extensive benefits package which includes a generous, comprehensive, and affordable health plan in addition to dental, vision, life, disability, flex, 401(k), and other options.
